loud, loud, loud

"The day the walls of the citys will crumble away uncovering our naked sould, we'll all start singing, shouting, screaming

The day the circus horses will stop turning around, running fast through the green valleys, we'll sing and cry and shout

The day the cars will lay in heaps, their wheels turning in vain, We'll run along the empty highways shouting, screaming, singing

The day young boys will stop becoming soldiers and soldiers will stop playing war games, we'll sing and cry and shout

The day will come up that we'll all wake up, hearing the shouts of joy and shouting together with the freaks

The day the world will turn upside down we'll run together round and rou screaming, shouting, singing."
