Ok i have a question for you then?
If in my life i have had many prophocies fufilled by me, how can they hav before they ocurred.
Is time only cyclindrical, if we look at it that it has always been then pe future?
If infinity is in question, does time even exsist or is it just a way to cont time created and can change with out us knowing as it would have always
I do hear where you are coming from, in fact i had this same conversasio
Yet to look at time we must take our selfs out of only 4 dimensions and s subatomic level dosen't need time.
infinity can be looked at as a pool of cause and effect, if you chuck a pe
ripples
Yet if chosen from the higher dimensions does the pool exsist or is it on happens, when you chuck in the pebble?
Else how could so many prophets see the future and be correct?
Unless something out side of time can change a events so we see it as s
