I asked the bumblebee what is the meaning of life, and it said to fly out food, and it makes more life.

I asked the bird what was its meaning of life, and it was to live in trees, them, and make more life.

Then I looked at humans, and realized we're confused that the basics of make life, not what we want to fulfil our life with.

God is the Source of reality, and knows everything we're thinking; where the blessings we've been given, yet it is not the meaning of life to only their time dedicated to servitude.

Here is a much more comprehensive meaning of Life
