Look around where does bad come from?
People's ego, what is ego?
The outer shell we produce for our self's, due to pain in the past.

So if each person judged them selves and got over these; we would slowl
While we have a devil to fight against, then there is something to blame, for all our actions. We don't get very far; have a look at our history. See history having this devil idea i.e. the burning of people as witches, black rest of the nonsense that has been spread.

Comparison is the start of disease!
