Summary: Which came first the chicken or the egg? The EGG!

Which came first the chicken or the egg? The EGG!

I.e. God created it self, from Chaos in the beginning, which created an egg for it self from its own reflection, which then made a bigger EGG and bigger out side of its self... i.e. 13 dimensions
This idea is from the Russian nested eggs and the ideas are put there for unless you are like a child, thank God for hiding the clever things of the world with children.

Yet we are soon to have 14 in the ascension, of God`s evolution on reality on the whole, as being it self, no longer an EGG, yet the chicken which we are part of!

There is a slight problem, within the concept on a whole? in this that many would rather be an independent egg in an EGG, which is not possible to sustain life without one killing the one chick, it dies if it leaves, as it needs to be contained always unless it can cope with dynamic quantum chaos as is out side the EGG.

If not part of the whole, when we all are part of the EGG, they are as part of the EGG, which is just about to hatch and become a chicken!

So if you wish to not be a part of an EGG and you`re not the chicken what are you?

Bacteria!

This like sheep`s are as they eat too much and goat`s gloat too much and "or` but .i.e. Contradicting each other!

God evolves and can become more, and each time the universe expands! This is also like the spider, as is also this same name of mine we found this with, or where we now think the EGG infinity concept, maybe of ours, as in the place it comes from in the first place as that is transcendental physics, put as child would (we don`t know many authors, who can do this)! (We will explain all when sure, as this site is)

Also really to get your head around the concept of the egg fully, as is the shape of the EGG (Zion/EGG), if you are inside the EGG, how can you see you are in side the EGG?

If you are not a singular part of it, yet an overall to make a chicken!

Do you see the logic?

You exist in 13 dimensions, which is the same as in each is similar principle as the nest Russian, Pollish, Jewish and..a (lol we have no race), in one is contained by the other dimension or egg, in an EGG...

Also one is smaller then the other as one must be contained by the next.

This from the commandments and with a lot of religious/spiritual books cross referenced...

You have 12 commandments up to now, we add the last as written, there is only one divine teacher and that is God?

The reasons: dieing at 23, seeing who and where we sit in the universe, and briefly how it all worked from being in heaven with God, does helps us loads as we explained in the after life guide, if anyone equals this by all means argue if not, don't ask any question and we will try and explain as God ask's us to.

Then with God guiding me also, we have been led to read all books to understand this to help the world all become spiritual.

Until maybe... as this theory illuminates me too? whilst writing is that:

With it we are stating, this is only a concept to include yet not reality that as we know! That we are the same as God was to begin with and a single strand of energy, yet unlike God, had to do so, the first time.

Each chick evolves from its father and creates a new being...

Now this isn't just a universe, as you lot think, yet entirely new reality in its own EGG.

If people disagree with the idea we can always just stick with one EGG?

This is Just a suggestion to inner peace, within each EGG and not the reality as we live in now with just one EGG?

Yet after seeing so many of us who seem they would rather live under religious laws and doctrine rather than under the mother hen to hatch and then wonder why they are out in the cold.

This is why the mustard seed is the faith in self as part of the EGG which you want to be a chicken one day and in this the fear of God alone is enough? which every part of the EGG should know, without the need for dogma!

As don't you know, Dog's eat Chicken?

With in the second context this could be used in, it is clearer, as the chick is like the last chicken and follows its mother; not another's mother yet it's own.

It doesn't come out as crocodile?yet it may come as a cockerel which makes a lot of noise; also like goats do! And chicks follow the mother mainly; the cockerel spends most of its time preaching as they do (yet at least with salt, unlike many so called teachers).

Call no man your teacher!

As God is the only teacher!

So if you don't understand it?. God will show you to your heart!

As others will always give their impressions 1st, so we must live and talk to one us on a whole to see clearly!

All of this came by the way, while on the hunt for our families egg's in an egg.... the Russian one in side anothermaybe by the line of David if we can find it all half way done, yet what are they called?

Easter eggs, by the way comes from the Jewish custom whilst on the run from God as we had to, and hid in the mountains i.e. Poland and middle Europe.

Also as writing this which we find funny, is that a Zanda would be a nurturing or wisdom EGG, in Sanskrit as the beginning of creation, also to work backwards from end to beginning, to show everyone first as A to Z of spiritualizing, or Z and A?.

Well we think it's clever anyways, like this one also in Africana culture,

Y`eshu`a = eshu = esu = j`esu`s = (new name) Sananda = Yoga to remain in constant bliss, San Chit Anda (constant bliss in Sanskrit, to sit in the EGG), which comes from Anda (The EGG of the universe) = Shiva = Yeshiva = Shiva`s son = Skanda = White horse archer with a flute who is also the Fig or mountain = New name of Christ = And?A = To continue =And?a = guess who? = Lets find peace as one, since we see it now...

P.s. please read!!

Revelations and other books are tampered with and are finished; if we can pull this off between us, we can all stay; as we love all? regardless life is life!

We do not kill; they removed the books, to leave only 66 so it makes no sense and prophecy of war remain and not all, plus edited loads to make them self kings over the world?

So where as they have all the books in the apocrypha with the abomination of desolation happening many think we still need war?it has happened already, now all we need to do is learn to sing praises and build a temple between us shouldn`t be hard as one world can!!

Flipping blind teachers think they knew what they where doing using fear to rule whilst the people where naive!

Yet now you understand, why and what, it is up to us as people to repair what was taken and fix this egg, for our self so one day we can all hatch and find peace in the new life!

In no way is the other around all Muslims and Christian are instructed the same, yet differently in the sense of sheep and goats, we are not going to harm our own flock (in our EGG as one) and that means all of you!

We are not racists as we are all peoples as you will see if you trace where this family has travelled and written to try and bring light and ideas to life!

Yet each time if you look through someone always goes and spoils it due to greed and not 1st listening to God, and then they wonder why there life is a mess!

If the chicken is on the egg, do you not think it knows when its baby starts struggling?

Yet it can`t come in the EGG and help you as some people believe of Christ, lol, how can a chicken squeeze in an EGG?

It really can`t be that way that a man or logo`s is God, it is simply as in the name Israel the man to be king, which is chosen each and every time by God who will make it clear! Not man! And not his little brother (second King) who always gets greedy throughout history, who is often called Paul/Saul/paraididmi/ect in history.

So be aware to test, if it isn`t show where it is as one from the entire world as this is God! By all! I am = "EGO" or Sheol or outside of EGG = wrong God made life and is oneness!

So the way people believe Christ was God, and anything else would destroy reality as we know it!

Also if scientists are messing with trying to manipulate quantum`s, and anything smaller then atoms, please be warned!

you may rupture the EGG, which would then destroy reality not just the universe, as the universe is made of quantum`s which make atoms?don`t play with toys we are really unsure how to use, and going out the EGG, would then wipe out all of mankind!

Like that, if it is reflected!

You do not understand how much information, can be contained in a single spirit or Quark!

You think you are playing with science, within the basic structure of the universe and if it contains infinity with in it, do you really think you could contain a pebble you chuck in to infinity!

Trying time jumping with science alone is dangerous if you knew what you are doing as you link to points, yet if you loses synchronistic so does the whole of time as it is connected!

Also loads of other reasons, we are best to wait till God gives us it, not create it with science alone. Which is as religions, and are to spirituality??

One is open and comes with instructions in the heart from God of what you need to know, the other is closed minded and comes from us trying to specify God in a box, when God is out side the EGG!

A subject as big as we are talking in all 13 dimensions explained or the matrix/Zian the EGG you live in) makes lot of mistakes as we do!

No one knows all only the EGG God in the beginning, why we have the centre dynamic evolving database i.e. God and a record of all mistakes so we can improve the universe between us as God is oneness.

Hope that makes sense and puts you off playing around with quantum`s, as in total destruction of the whole reality as written, not us.

All we will do is save our children we know, we can`t if we don`t know you, even though we will try if God sees fit; always try as we are good.

This is only if you do, as we love life we made it, we didn`t make death man chose it, as this is the matrix you know, yet far more complicated then you could possibly imagine, in that way it is always fun, try it again?lol

First seek the kingdom of God and all wizdom is there, it`s like an adventure trail in a computer Game, just remember to play and help others along!

As this game hasn`t an original Manuel, until it`s finished, as then all mistakes are included by us as one book as whole not separate!

Why we have so many books, that work as one and cross references with keys, if you know!

Any help on clear scientifically acquired spiritual knowledge data for others please add on the site.

It is appreciated to bring this world into its spiritual age as foretold by us, with all of us!

Also if anyone says (I am) do not go after them as they have EGO and this is a fake egg to surround its self, yet it doesn`t exist and this won`t exist soon which is scary for some who haven`t realised this, as they have lived many life`s and will see who they are soon, as people are finding anyways, as the yolk in the EGG, prepares us to hatch in to the real world!

Yet we always give away; don`t follow man`s religious laws that charge you for misguiding you in the first place!

God`s laws are in your heart, praise God and repent, are all you need to do!

This May make you cry, if you haven`t done this for along time, which is to soften, like you do with clay! With out you will become brittle and snap as happens!

It`s not hard; it`s in your heart, just open in it and let God/Good in to your life.

Atoms are easy, Quantum`s also are spirit and if you go killing them you kill life its self and spirit as is the chick in the EGG still growing, until it is safe to be free, on its own!
