Summary: How to fix many of the problems in the worlds religions as to how we can have peace!

To unite the religions many may feel is a hard task, yet there is a way and it is remaining in context of the religious books.

What many are trying at the moment is discussions, yet this doesn't get to the points that will permanently contradict each other. Having read most religious things that will never be resolved; they can only be fixed. A lot of these things and have caused more wars and fighting worldwide then any other. Now a will tell you, their teachers are true and sent from God. Well as discussed why is there contradiction if all religions are to serve God.

This is why much of this has also been foretold as occurring, so where to go. The main problem and cause is the Bible; most Jews will not accept Yeshua. Much of what has been written by the Pharisee at the time is Anti-Jewish. The book of John as the author of John was a Pharisee and has included many things and not ever said by Yeshua, as these would have surely been repeated in Luke, which they are not, a list of these is on the site. The main points to note that Christ being a man portrayed him self as God through many of the scriptures. These are not truth; even though they are portrayed to be so.

The reason for this, is at the time the Pharisees didn't want the Jewish people was cleverly done by the book of John portraying him as something he was not. It remains till this day and still many Jews will not accept Yeshua.

The next point in this, that Paul being an X-Pharisee, contradicts Yeshua. Though most Christians would argue the fact, many intelligent theologians have declared it; that Paul re-wrote Christianity.

Now this being said, it is easier said then done; as many Christians refuse to they would give up all the Pharisees have said, as this is the main cause of the Muslims have been told by Mohammed, that the Bible was edited by the Jews and John were both of the Jewish council, known at the time as Pharisees. Now since their doctrine is Anti-Christ this is what everyone is expecting here; as being most of the New Testament.

This may sound strange, as is not Christianity the New Testament; well the books of Luke, James and Jude do hold true to the teachings of Yeshua and the rest of the Bible all of that acceptable by most Jews from what I am aware of and the Old Testament. Now it is not just the Jews, yet also Muslims would then be able to except the Bible except as the errors are removed and as the Quran states there shall be no other gods worshiped. Jews could accept as no longer would Christ be someone, who they would worship him as he never actually said this. It is only Paul and John that Next is Rastafarians who also have problems with the Bible, as they insist on the Bible. Well this is true, as the anointing oil should contain cannabis; this was discovered in 1980 by the Hebrew university. This means that most of the prophets and their teachings were based on cannabis. This led to them being free thinking and more open minded. The Rastafarian religion, that cannabis is a teacher plant given by God. This being introduced into the world, would dramatically change the world for the good, as currently at present we have drugs wars and gangsters in charge of a plant, which should be used for other purposes. The disciples clearly stated that they used the anointing oil to heal, and research is being done into the affects of cannabis; as it does heal. It is the presence of THC in cannabis is fat soluble so causing the rest of the ingredients to be absorbed. The next point in all of this is concerning the eating of meat, now Paul told us to eat everything. The Old Testament says it is to be a special occasion, and if you eat meat simply removing Paul would change a great deal as to many religions, it is the eating of meat, as it is something holy as God is all things. Yet if it is done as a regular thing in the Old Testament and not as a regular thing, this is far more in keeping with the original intent.

Another problem is due to an old way of thinking, many are taught that Hinduism is a polytheistic God; this is not so. God in Hinduism has no image, yet is all images. The many gods are what many believe are different Gods i.e. Shiva, Vishnu and all the rest are reflections of the one God, Brahman who created the universe and is one with everything. In many other beliefs, God is one; we also can be.

In some translations of the Bible, and in even in my dictionary; the word Paganism is misquoted. Paganism is a religion that believes God is everything, not that a heathen, who has no religion. This has been introduced again by the way to stop people acknowledging the truth. As God is indeed everything, it is not of the world that this was introduced.

All of this being said though, we can only unite the religions if it is made to work for everyone needs to help; Christians need to realise about Paul and John and that a Christian is an anointed one and that this means having cannabis in the temple and stop preaching against God's wishes. Muslims as stated in the Quran should not do as to bring down the Anti-Christ. It is no good shouting at Jews and Christians without knowledge to do so; this is provided on this site. Also this applies to any religion, with knowledge, you can explain too many Christians, where there is controversy. With in almost every religion there is something stated that someone will be brought down. To do this it takes people to help, as many are trying, yet with out the truth they will not succeed as the points stated here; causes conflicts. This needs to be done on the verge of wiping out self's out.

I ask all who read this to ask others to see and to look through the site. There are many things I need to add to this, yet for now these are some of the major points of contention amongst the religions.
