Summary: With many thinking peter is a name and jesus was his name, they've missed clear underlying prophecy that are set to be fulfilled.

If you search the Bible for "satan rebuke" and put on partial matches, you will come up with two verses across the whole of the Bible.

After Yeshua explained to the disciples how he would fulfill prophecy by cutting off Jerusalem and divorcing Israel (Zec 11).

Quote:

Mar 8:31-33 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. (32) And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. (33) But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. This was prophesied for him to do so, so when he called Simon satan its clear prophetic fulfillment, that with the name change to "jesus" it makes most people miss it.

Quote:

Zec 3:1-2 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. (2) And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

Now many claim this is talking about Yeshua the high priest, who rebuilt the second temple in Ezra. Yet within the prophetic implications, it's clearly defined by Yeshua; with the references to angels in the sentences making it clear it's more than just a repeat of what happened.

The fact the end line of Zechariah chapter 3, has this statement and Yeshua clearly called Simon the stone for a reason implies he knew something we do not; which is most possibly Simon peter (stone) was a Pharisee, which is why he was allowed to preach to the Sanhedrin at the start of Acts.

Quote:

Zec 3:9 For behold the stone (peter - Petros) that I have laid before Joshua (Yeshua); upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

So when your told "Simon says put your hands on your head, Simon says touch your toes, Simon says follow the synagogue of satan, don't believe everything you're told by someone Yeshua defined as a Stumbling Stone of the nations. He even stated how satan had use for Simon as wheat and that Simon has authority over the gates of hell; not the gates of heaven, as the church established by him reiterated.
