Summary: Paul telling people it is ok to eat meat is wrong, the Bible shows meat is not good for us.

The Bible shows that those who are dedicated to God should not eat meat, in many religions this is still true today. Scientifically our bodies struggle to eat meat and really it is not good for us. People tell you, that you need the protein from meat; this is not true. As if you check it up scientifically, in actual fact your body struggles with meat proteins. It finds it hard to absorb them into the body. In actual fact you use more energy trying to absorb these meat proteins; then you gain. As energy comes from glucose and the best form of glucose comes from fruit, in the form of fructose. Where as, though fruit and vegetables don't contain the levels of protein that meat does, these proteins are easily absorbed by the body.

To begin with, in the very beginning, according to genesis we are told by God to just eat fruit.

Quote:

Gen 1:29 And God said, Behold! I have given you every herb seeding seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree seeding seed; to you it shall be for food.

After the flood we are told we can eat any moving thing as food.

Quote:

Gen 9:3 every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herb.

Now this is understandable, as after the flood there wasn't much of the world's fruit trees, and there wouldn't be the resources there was before.

So what God was saying, is as substitute to eat meat; the same as when Moses was in the desert and he was given birds and manna to eat.

Now although in Christian circles the word Nazarite has been almost totally discarded; or assumed only to be Christ, in fact it means; someone who has decided to separate them selves from man and dedicate them selves to God. Now many Christians would say they already do this, yet in fact it is part of the Law of Moses and Christ told us to follow the law.

Paul told us that we are free of the law; and this is not the case and it is Anti-Christ.

Now according to this law there are a few things that Paul has caused people to break.

Quote:

Num 6:3 he shall separate from wine and strong drink and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink; neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes or dried.

I am including this even though it is on a different subject, as the whole idea of communion is a lie and they have forged the Bible to cover it up.

The point on the eating of meat, I am referring to is this again the translation doesn't help, as it is misleading.

Quote:

Num 6:6 all the days that he separates to Jehovah, he shall not come near any dead body.

Now the dead body part of this, actual means dead creature, so this would imply no dead flesh. Now given the fact before the fall, all we eat is fruit then this makes logical sense.

You see when all we eat is fruit we have far more energy; our bodies are not capable of digesting certain parts of meat. So from this we can deduce that God did not intend us to eat meat. A perfect Biblical example of this is in Daniel:

Quote:

Dan 1:8-16 But Daniel laid on his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank. So he asked permission of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. (9) And God had given Daniel kindness and compassion before the chief of the eunuchs. (10) And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has chosen your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the boys who are of your kind? Then you would forfeit my head to the king. (11) And Daniel said to Melzar, whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, (12) I beg you, try your servants ten days. And let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. (13) Then let our appearance be seen before you, and the appearance of the boys who eat of the king's food. And as you see, deal with your servants. (14) So he listened to them in this matter, and tried them for ten days. (15) And at the end of ten days their faces looked fairer and fatter in flesh than all the boys who had eaten the king's food. (16) So Melzar took away their part of the food, and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

So you see Daniel being a Nazarite (dedicated to God) would not defile himself with meat or alcohol. The results are given here; Daniel was healthier, so this is the way God intended us to be. I keep seeing people who are suffering from illness due to eating meat, I myself had depression, so I gave up all things that caused a lack of energy; this meant giving up drinking, as I noticed; not only did it take from my energy, it also disconnected me from God. I gave up eating meat and for 2 months I experimented on myself by only eating fruit. I have never since being a kid felt so healthy; I ran up a hill as if it was flat my body felt light and full of energy.

Now many Christians will say that we are told we can eat meat in the bible as well, yet by whom.

Quote:

Col 2:16 Therefore let no one judge you in food or in drink, or in respect of a feast, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbaths.

1Ti 4:3 forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

So yes I do fulfill Anti-Paul, yet I stand with what God has shown me, at first I did what was required to be healthy and then I found out about Nazarites, and it made perfect sense. God led me to not eat meat or drink and doing so I had stop defiling my body; As a Nazarite should do to separate them selves to God. Now in response to Paul, I will refer to Revelations; most of things about Jezebel, fake Jew, murderer of the faithful martyr, i.e. Stephen, are talking about Paul.

Quote:

Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the teachings of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication.

If you want to know what, fornication he taught, he taught people to worship Christ. This is fornication, as the only thing in the whole universe worthy of worship is God, and only God! Anything else is adultery, fornication or prostitution.

Also people will say that peter was told to not call unclean what God has blessed, yet this was to show Peter to go to a certain group of people. Not that God told him to eat things that God knew are not good for us. As that would make no logical sense, as God wants the best for us.

I will add to this a documentary I saw, about how the Amazon jungle works, I always believed it was just a chaotic mess of plants. Yet what this documentary explained is that animals go to bogs, which are high in mineral deposits. As they walk from one bog to the next; they eat fruit from the trees, as they swallow the pips these come out in the animals waste. Now our bodies and animals convert the food we eat into fertilizer; so where these animals walk along from one bog to another, there are fruit trees growing along the roads, in which they walk. So the whole jungle has roads connecting all bogs together, with fruit trees growing along the side of them. Now if we lived the same, you can see the divine plan of God, not that we chop down all the jungle; to make land to grow crops, to feed animals. Yet instead to live as the animals do; eating fruit and where we put out waste, we fertilize the land and new fruit trees grow, from the seeds within our waste. The whole world could be a massive orchard with fruit everywhere; no need for want or suffering, everyone having enough.

Trees hold a lot of water and so in us planting fruit trees everywhere, the world's oceans would decline. the more trees we chop down the more the water rises. When there are plenty of trees, the land receives more rain and so less droughts, when the land is barren, there is less rain the crops die and the animals as well.

God planned the creation with an immense logic, so that all works within this circle of life, nothing is wasted.

The only problem is we have forgotten the truth that we are part of the circle of life, this also stems from Pharisee doctrine; of we are not of the world. Yeshua didn't say this and it is a lie. To back that up as stated in Revelations:

Quote:

Rev 11:18 And the nations were full of wrath, and Your wrath came, and the time of the judging of the dead, and to give the reward to Your servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to the ones fearing Your name, to the small and to the great, and to destroy those destroying the earth.

So we don't need to eat meat, the land we use to raise cattle could be used for fruit; the world's climate would readjust its self. There would be less want, less need and we would live far healthier lives! Before the flood when people didn't eat meat, they lived a thousand years. Then we started eating meat and our live span was reduced due to the fact your body can't cope with eating meat. If you want to check this even today, people in the east who live off fruit, live longer then those in the west who eat meat.

Quote:

Mat 21:15-16 and when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things which he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were angry. (16) And they said to him, do you hear what these say? And Yeshua said to them, yes, have you never read, "Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings you have perfected praise?"

So if children can show praise and perfected, then are we as people, not supposed to embrace this and include it in our services. If you check up the word hosanna it means to bow and praise the most high. As many people believe this is saying to worship Yeshua, yet it means to thank or pray to the most high for sending the son of David.

Another reason with Christ that isn't recorded is that he would play with the children, children loved him. As instead of acting above them he treated them on the same level, so they could hear what he had to say. What is recorded though is this and this tells us that we are supposed to be like children.

Quote:

Mat 18:3-6 and said, truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of Heaven. (4) Therefore whoever shall humble himself like this little child, this one is the greater in the kingdom of Heaven. (5) And whoever shall receive one such little child in my name receives me. (6) But whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believes in me, it would be better for him that an ass's millstone were hung around his neck, and he be sunk in the depth of the sea.

To explain this better heaven is like, a play ground, it is fun and there is music always playing, it is like being in a big party. Who wants some grumpy person, spoiling everybody's fun, by telling people off for worshiping God and having fun in the process?

Does that make sense, as from when I saw heaven that is what it is! Everyone is light hearted, a heavy heart is not like a child, judging and trying to add rules to people's games is not like a child. In fact if you watch a children's playground and where you have a child that has strict parents, it learns the same. You will have a group of kids playing a game, which doesn't have many rules and so is fun. Then the child comes across and starts telling everyone "right this is how we are going to play it???" You watch the other children's faces, sometimes they may try it, and sometimes the child loses friends and is told not to join in anymore.

Quote:

1Co 14:20 Brothers, do not be children in your minds, but in malice be like infants, and in your minds be mature.

This is a blatant contradiction people may say, Paul is speaking on a different matter, that Paul is referring not to be immature. Christ was saying to be humble, yet Christ also said concerning the stern Pharisee, which Paul was part of from an early age.

Quote:

Mat 11:16-17 but to what shall I compare to this generation? It is like little children sitting in the markets and calling to their playmates, (17) saying, we played the flute to you, and you did not dance! We mourned to you, but you did not wail!

This means that their hearts had grown cold and hard, not light as a child that hears music and wants to dance.

The next point that I find astonishing, that Paul said is in malice to be like a child? As the malice of a child is far worse than someone who has grown up, as a child hasn't learnt to forgive and forget, instead most children sulk and stamp their feet in malice. So yet again another thing that is Anti-Christ, as how can you forgive others, if you are going to be sulking. I don't know if you know Paul's background, yet he was brought up as a Pharisee in other words a very strict environment. So even though he may have tried to change his ways; from the days of being a young man having Stephen stoned to death in front of him. His mentality still was very stern and not as Christ taught, you can see this in all Paul has written. He is that child in the play ground who comes across and spoils everyone's game, as he adds rules to a game that already worked and in doing so spoiling the game.

Quote:

1Co 13:11 When I was an infant, I spoke as an infant, I thought as an infant, I reasoned as an infant. But when I became a man, I did away with the things of an infant.

Now considering I asked my granddad of 82, "how old do you feel inside?" and he says 16. How do we ever get away from how we felt as children? We don't the more we struggle to become this idea of an adult, the further we go from getting into heaven and the more we hurt and confuse our self's. As really we are all God's children, we never change from being this.

Quote:

Mat 19:13-14 then little children were brought to him, that He should put His hands on them and pray. And the disciples rebuked them. (14) But Yeshua said, allow the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

Let me explain this a little more, a child looks in simplicity, it doesn't use strict judgment, there is an innocence to the way it looks at the world. A child smiles and is smiling a lot of the time. Until it has to fight from people knocking it and restricting it from doing things that are not needed to be restricted. All of these things are possible to us all the way through our lives. We don't need to change and become old one day; it is false as on the inside we all stay the same.

To sum this up what Paul has written is close hearted and cold, it is heavy and hard to digest. So for most children they don't understand a word he is talking about, this is not like heaven and people who adjusted their thinking to understand Paul hurt their spirits.

Christ is open hearted and warm, his yoke is light most children will understand him and love him. Christ showed the way of heaven following what he said will guide you to heaven, as long as you don't get muddled up with Pharisee doctrine written by Paul and John.
