The Knights of the Round Table,
Was it just a fable?
Or to learn a quest,
To be the best!
To find rest!
You ask again!
What was the test?
The search of the knights,
Was to find wisdom!
To save the kingdom!
Everyone that came,
Said to be a youth!
Water is the way!
Do you hear what we say?
Water is all that lives!
Water only gives!
It is assumptive!
To say it is scientific!
Be more specific!
H₂O that doesn't flow;
Two gas?
Science Will show,
That isn't so!
The knights sit as they do,
Everyone gets a say,
Like heaven in a way!
Many knights we have heard,
All say the same!
Absurd!
Some do say!
Only mine is the way!
All speak the same quest,
To learn the Celeste!
Don't put people under duress!
If the table,
Were not there!
None of us,
Would really care!
Everyone sees their bit,
Don't tell others that's it!
All you do is alienate,

Make others irate!
This isn't,
What they did state!
The lord does create,
Doesn't imitate!
The path is straight!
Don't dictate,
Instead relate!
Circulate,
To accumulate!
That, which was spoken,
Instead of provoke!
Don't invoke!
Don't choke,
The yolk!
How can we be whole?
When we find divide?
This was never implied!
They wouldn't have been knights,
Wouldn't have had any rights!
There can be only one king!
He gave all,
That they we,
Might bring!
Is there something missing?
You see what this is meaning?
We can make something gleaming!
Find the centre of the table,
Make it not a fable!
A world glowing,
Oh so bright!
Finally we got it right!
