Here is something that makes us think,
It's that feeling instinct!
Haven't you noticed?
How fast the feeling goes?
We don't even really?
Feel it in our toes!
It should be called extinct!
As that is how it makes us think!
Especially if you have had a drink!
You can't see the link,
Rely on our instincts.
When we should think in sync!
To flow in how you think?
Doesn't bring us all too the brink!
With people you're fonder!
Take time to ponder,
See what is yonder!
Really did they mean it bad?
Where they just feeling sad?
Once they might have made you glad;
Don't treat them like a fad!
Take a second to see!
Maybe they didn't mean to be so Harsh!
That's not really who they are!
It's when they were hurt,
Got a scar!
Why we need to look far,
Instead of fight!
Because we think,
We are right??
