A poem about the trees,
We beg your help please!
Every tree holds the water,
Don't you think?
We should look after them,
Like we alter?
As the water,
Starts to rise!
We play with dice!
That could get us in a mess!
It's like playing chess,
We really do put the earth,
Under such stress!
Stop putting her to the test,
It will adept,
Even react!
Keep it's self,
From falling back!
Let's treat this planet,
As we should!
Stop chopping it all down,
Just for wood!
It is a symbiosis,
It is atrocious,
Here is the diagnosis!
Catch the flow, We put out,
What The plants need to grow!
They`re the same,
They try to show!
Soon we will get,
What we have reaped!
Why do you leave?
The children to grieve!
So plant instead,
Stop the dread!
Look after this place!
Don't be a disgrace!
Help save the human race!
