Speaking of crystals?

Hey ya know, inside our bodys is a crystalline light grid that parallels our DNA. Its made from the 695? acupuncture points on our skin. Each point is tied to a galaxy/universe. As this living light enters our bodys into the light grid (DNA) it connects our etheric/astral body with this living light. This is what is also found inside of us. Science has found a way to look inside of us, into this light grid. What they have found is tiny crystals floating and slowly tumbling along, inside the DNA. The rainbow is sometimes seen reflecting off of these tiny crystals, twirling spirals within the fiber optics, of our crystalline light grid. There are thousands of these tiny crystals.

Its interesting that Rev 4:3 talks of a cosmic throne, upon which our Father sits. This facet, as a crystal having certain colors. Around this throne and crystal is our Mother of us all, whose essence is in that rainbow circling the throne. Just as our Father is in the crystal. So is our Mother in that rainbow!

Now we have a miniture type of this representation inside our bodys, in our DNA. tiny crystals (Father) flashing rainbow colors (Mother).. What a testimony to our parents, one facet of them both, is inside all of us, a signature - if you will.

David, I dont think we mean to replace crystals with our reasoning ability. We use our nature and the Godhead to help us with. I know what you mean about the crystals. But God has given us gifts and crystals are one of them. Please dont think of the human being ( a divine imprint of the family of God) with other things. The human being on earth, is represented by many things, Some of us are hands, feet, eyes, etc. Our attractions to various things are seen and evident. Together we are one. All parts.

I hope that helps somewhat. I have difficulty sometimes expressing myself. I share a blessing with you in peace and love, for higher truths and experiences. The facet of God, is a crystal. There is a connection, however cloudy it might be.

In the 1920's, radios didnt have batteries, they either plugged into wall sockets or used crystals, cut to form, so they would pull the radio frequency out of the air near your ear; and ya could hear it. No batteries were required. Before the flood, there were huge crystals to powers types of flying ships that are Ufo shaped or saucer shaped. Inside planet earth, the next frequency out, that pulls in energy from the earth going at its etheric level. The suns rays feed the emerald crystals, the DNA, nature, amongst other things. We are wonderful, beautiful creations, with our own diamond. Our Father and Mother, in Heaven; are the same way. As above, so below.

see an interest in crystals on earth, because it is one facet of the Godhead children, created in that image and with many facets, like a diamond! And us your concerns David, help us to understand..peace!

This is dude, I logged in but for some reason it didnt take, sorry...
