

Title: Conversations

Subtitle: The Ultimate Biblical Question

Second Subtitle: Re: The Ultimate Biblical Question

Author: dude

Date: 1145838135

URL: https://www.wizanda.com/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic\_id=32

Wiz, where are you going with this? Most of the scriptures posted are about organizations being "wolves in sheeps clothing" who have led the flock astray but the world does not believe that.

I feel it is too long and boring. Most will never finish reading it. Just use one or two pages. That defeats your effort as it's just too boring, redundant.

I am still not sure what you mean by "the ultimate bible question"? To me, the bible supports 7th day sabbath keeping, or pagan sunday keeping? Because of different interpretations based on scripture taken out of context and such, it's a big question.

The ultimate bible question to me is this, is Yashua really the only begotten son of God, or another prophet (man only)-like Mohamed, Buddha, etc. Is Jesus really died for our sins, and resurrected; and most importantly; can send us the gift of the Holy Spirit? Because without this spirit inside us, spiritual things cannot be discerned.

Because Buddha and Mohamed, while apparently being good men, are not able to send the Holy Spirit into us like the Holy Ghost. But Jesus says he can do this. That's the question to me. Is Jesus, who he says he is? "Deity"?

But you probably had something else on your mind, what is it? And define it.