When i died, i saw no devil as many people now believe.

To believe that a being oposed to God exists, is nieve

If you read the begining of the bible God created the world and saw that

The devil or satan appers in Job, God ask him where did you come from a walking on the earth

Ok so where does bad come from many ask?

When i died, in hell all i saw is man with Ego

As heaven is oneness, and ego is that we know better then God

Why do many people believe Christ is God, as this is what Ego, would ha easier to believe in something we can see, God is spirit and all things in image as he is all.

Not as Yeshua stated

So if you think, where does bad come from, people thinking they are doin cause bad.

God has ultimate knowledge he doesnt make mistakes, and didnt create a self to fight against as this would be daft.

in fact the devil/satan comes from mans own heart wishing to be important many ask how we can end kali as hindu's call it, the age of limitaion? ea realise within every person ego can cause bad, each person controls thie

Heaven is made up of love and wisdom, and hell is Ego.

this is as simple, as it gets this from what i have seen and the father has shown me is the truth!

Ego can come in many forms so be warned

yet it also can be controled, so all must get to the task of controlling the others with there own ego, by telling them they are evil as this produces so it dosent help infact make things worse

Love as my brother yeshua stated is the only way to change people

Pauls judgemental way do not help people, they make people go the othe
