well on to the question at hand then, why are we here?

I agree with what you say about cause and effect through lifes ie Karma
I have met many people i have known, from other lifes and sometimes kn they do

Yet as you apper to know, it is deeper then that, as this is just the roles as we can see the future, it must also be already recorded as you say in sticking the needle at the end we can see the end of the song?

So why would all these people be suffering and playing out records, whe hear the whole track?

Is it that we are to see if it works and which way works best yet if God can give me miracles that defy time by being there as i need t all of time to make it so?

So is this just a test? to see if we have the will power to stand up and c be a better melody?
