There certainly is a devil....satan has you believing he does not exist.. not exist...that is why the bible says few find jesus to have a vessel in father...the bible is our basic instructions before leaving earth...and you developing a personal and intimate relationship with jesus christ...once this is where each individual needs to search and seek with all their heart...this is where each individual needs to search and seek with all their heart...real...you can think it is real...but the supernatural you will never know. search and seek for jesus and crucify there ego...become selfless to god and give all you are to Jesus....I guarantee your life will be transformed you....the devil / satan does not ever want you to know or come to understand you in his world...no one but you can make that choice and only god knows your thoughts, feelings, emotions....this is not easy....but in the end so worth it you have and just watch the blessings flow in.
