Within reality, for every action there is an equal & opposite reaction; so though some people will follow a religion, others will go the opposite.

Since any organized system of belief, will cause some opposites; is it better to leave everyone to their own devices, like the Tao suggests...

Yet in that none response, won't some fill that void with a made up religion...

Thus been thinking about a multiple sided boxing-ring style religion; that makes people wake up through extreme contrasts.

Like make them question:

Advaita (Monism) Vs Dvaita (Dualism)...Free atonement Vs Sacrifice...Self Vs Soul...God being 0 Vs 1...

Will be grateful for any other intellectual ideas for contrasts?

Also what do you think, is it possible to educate through extreme contrast?

What do you think the results would be?
