Fair enough some of the things are really ambiguous to discern, and are

Yet when all 3 Synoptic Gospels (Luke 21:8, Mark 13:5-6, Matthew 24:4-5) say that everyone will be deceived, is by those that come after Yeshua claiming to be him or her.

Then this is so blatant that the Gospel of John is made up, as it repeats what Yeshua said as if Yeshua spoke that way, trying to make him seem like he was claiming to be god.

Many Christians perceive Jesus is God because of the made up texts, they have been deceived as specified, and because people listen to those deceived people, everyone is seeing it as a joke, when it can be physically seen in the world.

So why do people not question it outside of the religious confusions; how can Abrahamic beliefs not take it a bit more seriously to point out the lack of evidence?

How come something so simple, and blatant can be missed by so many?
