The 13 dimensions is something i've seen in my NDE, cross referenced with many religious ideas, especially the 10 commandments already fitting.

Remember that the CPU is the only thing that is self existing, and that can be sure of saying 'I Am'. Don't worship Images, as everything is made manifest by the CPU.No bad harmony, as reality is all energy.Remember linear time is an illusion, and be still to reflect on it.Gravity is caused by bad deeds, thus clean within.All matter is one, be kind to all.All consciousness is interconnected, be true in mind.We can not steal a place within Infinity.Look at the bigger picture to see past the lies.Lose selfish desires to detach from the Matrix.Share unconditional love with all reality.Wisdom is found by seeking the core of Oneness.The CPU is interconnected to everything, it is only by letting go that it allows us to connect (Yoga).
