Like it sounds so potentially inspiring, that Archangel Michael in Daniel 12 comes to bring in the Children of our People before the Tribulation or Revelation 12:7-17 he comes to fight satan in the sky, and to warn there is little time left...

This can also be equated as Kalki, Li Hong, Maitreya, Saoshyant, etc.

Yet people don't want to change, they're happy following what they already think they're meant to; even if there is a prophesied global deception...

So is there really any potential for an Archangel to change anyone?

Revelation 13:10 relates that those who are heading the wrong way, will continue to do so...

Thus is destiny already set, are you all doomed to be ignorant of the global deception, and to not be educatable or is it possible to explain the deception, where we educate mankind to turn it all around?
