So based on the Tanakh prophecies, Yeshua came to cut off the Abraham Israel/Judah (Zechariah 11); divorcing the automatically saved mentalities only the enlightened saints will be saved.

Yet leaving foolish shepherds over the flock, thus Christianity (John, Paul) misguided by the Pharisees to believe they're saved by the death of Christ who just ignore context within the Tanakh looking for a saviour, rather than enlightenment.

So Yeshua came pointing back to following the God Most High (El Elyon) to reiterate repentance, not sacrifice, for the forgiveness of sin.

Thus Yeshua didn't come to save anyone from sin, Romans, death, etc; yet for 30 pieces of silver, we divorced ourselves.

Next is the return, where God only keeps the enlightened saints, who were the foundations of the world...

So unless anyone can show somewhere in scripture otherwise; it seems as if only enlightened individuals save themselves by their own works (Karma).

Additionally it is interesting how false teachers, often sell us a free salvation in something, rather than actually becoming an enlightened saint our selves.
