Understandably the world hasn't noticed some of the basics, like the Gospels where the Synoptic Gospels are a series of patterns with a testimony to Christ. The Gospel of John is deliberately made up of people's discernment.

Now since most have already failed in this world, and thus it isn't exactly people for not understanding the texts properly...

Is it possible the Messiah by the knowledge given by God, can prove that our understanding are legitimate based on the equations in the texts or do we have to be religious, whilst keeping the Godly?

To be clear to all, this is literally Messianic prophecy, and religious for world peace, if we rectify some of the comprehension issues; otherwise a and everyone won't survive.
