Christians, Rabbinic Jews, Muhammadans, Baha'i, Zoroastrian, Hindu, etc sit waiting for the Messiah/final Avatar prophesied; yet none already acknowledge what is already before them in clear details.

There are far too many advanced errors that blind many to understanding what is going on properly, such as:

The word 'jesus' isn't Yeshua/Yehoshua in Hebrew, so tons of contexts is being missed in exegesis.

EI and Elohim are not the same thing (Isaiah 46:9); if we carefully study the contextual differences the Rabbinic Jews have rejected God (EI - Deuteronomy 32:18), thinking a Eloh is the same as the Source (EI).

The Divine Council though referenced in both the Bible Psalms 82:1, and Quran 38:69, 37:8, became confused into polytheism; yet then because of rejecting part of the theological hierarchy that exists, that it is the Archangels (Elohim) who have interacted with mankind, this is why Yeshua Elohim was misunderstood.

On understanding the correct context of Yeshua Elohim (Psalms 98:3, Isaiah 52:10) without making idolatry leads to salvation.

The Second Coming could literally look like that explanation, and if people were more serious about God, they'd study if it made sense, and the Word of God in religious texts globally would become a Fire sweeping the web...
