Considering how much money is made from the Bible, and books arguing about the contexts of the Messiah...

You'd think in 15 years one of you would be a millionaire by now, having sold your story to the papers, that you've literally found the Messiah on a forum.

It is understandable not everyone is very good at study, and thus even though in the early days I did post about the names in the religious texts; it was never questioned later that our name in Hebrew is Flock (אֶבְרָהָם אֱבְרָהָם אֱבְרָהָם; אֶבְרָהָם אֱבְרָהָם אֱבְרָהָם;), and our divine being Zion (Psalms 146:10, Psalms 147:12, Isaiah 52:7) becomes a metaphoric name in places.

This forum will one day be packed with people studying, and it only depends on time - to who gets to the papers first.
