Ezekiel 20 is about the Israelites, then their Exile (1st Temple), then the Jews, and their Exile (2nd Temple), to the Diaspora, and the Exile Among the Nations...

Then in Ezekiel 21 is the coming war of Armageddon between Israel and Babylon (Iran).

Ezekiel 22 is about the Pharisees made up Christianity's idol ('jesus'), and Rabbinic Judaism was sent out into the nations because they rejected Yeshua; Islam is from Petra originally, thus it was also part of Judah - thus they made up their own idols, and now fight against themselves as it says in Ezekiel 22:3.

They 'shall be gathered' (Armageddon) into Jerusalem in Ezekiel 22:18-22, where the Quantum Holy Fire shall remove the Iniquity in a Day (Dross).

The Messiah's coming in Ezekiel 34:23-24, Ezekiel 37:24-25, doesn't mention any war; it says God has removed the iniquity, to make an Everlasting Covenant with everyone.

Is there anywhere that the Messiah comes before the Judgement to remove the Dross?
