Bhagavan Brahma (Lord of Creation) is translated into Ancient Hebrew as El and Brahma have the same meaning. They come from the breath of the Source. 'To be', 'To make manifest', and thus 'To Create'.

Abraham worshipped the God Most High (El Elyon), and the Lord of Creation Melchizedek.

Ancient theology has been confused due to the language, and so they all became confused. Where there is the Source of reality (El), and then a Divine Council (Elods) created reality. The Divine Council are like Archangels, and have been put as Avatars, but confused as demigods by ancient cultures.

Since Babylon the Rabbi confused their theology, whilst going opposite to the Source, they created a stricter form of monotheism; yet in doing so they were creating a form of henosis.

The ancient religions predate the Bible: Zoroastrian (4000+) prophesied the Bible (2000). Hindu (4500+) ideas were the concepts that prophesied the Bible.
