Summary: A definition and explanation of the meaning of unconditional lo

Many say they understand unconditional love, yet do they? Here are a co show you what I mean.

1). you love a person i.e. a partner or family member. Then they complet and hurt you so much it is hard to see love for that person. Now maybe a reasons to love them yet at the time of the hurt do you unconditionally lo

2). Many say when you have children, you unconditionally love them. Yet reincarnated, do you still love them or even remember them? In some cas has been recorded that some people get reborn, and go back to their old yet the same spirit knowing who they all were and with the love from the cases they are forgotten as people do not recall their previous existence

3). your children repeatedly let you down and cause you strife, do you ur Many will say yes, yet at the time they are causing you grief, many just s gone for that moment. Also maybe your child does something so bad you Then you must again learn to have love for them. This happens in many f unconditional love.

4). you marry someone, as you feel you unconditionally love them and th cheat on you and break your heart or just abuse you as a person, till you many people stay with the person out of obligation and not wishing to do unconditionally love that person or do you resent them in some ways and and obligation? So again is this unconditional love?

5). in your life you make many mistakes and some times serious mistakes your self, do you unconditionally love your self?

So as you can see from these, many of us may say we know unconditiona when unconditional is as it means and always without any reason, for thi So what is unconditional love and how may we achieve this?

Within all of these questions they contain time and events, so to truly un it must be something that is timeless and unchanging. God is the only th God is out side of time and so therefore contains the qualities needed to this can be understood then this love can be used for the good of many, love, then you are not in need of trying to find it here. Which as you can

Where people are constantly striving, to find this someone or some thing unconditional love for. Yet always something will come along to test this points, the love in side your self will drop.
Heaven and God is infinite and a name for heaven is oneness, now onene felt here, so if at first rather then seeking the love of people or the love kingdom of heaven and God. You will see that through oneness and realiz parts of God with in us, and we all can try to live as one then you may b love for everyone, which is timeless and unchanging. If your 1st love is can love everyone else as children. Which then even if they hurt you, or past this and realize, the reasons they do things; As instead of just look perspective. You can also look at it from God's and heavens perspective or they didn't understand. As from God's perspective all people are God' mistakes, each one needing to be nurtured and shown how to improve.

This is one reason that Yeshua said to hate self and love God with all yo opposite and said who doesn't love them self's, which as I hope you can wrong. Also from what I am describing here, this is what is needed to en as the 1st level of heaven is unconditional love as I have described here way of loving, without this people can not enter and remain there, as oth heaven as it wouldn't be perfect.

So a true definition of unconditional love is to, "love God with all your m through this love, love others".
