Summary: There is a deception prophesied across the Bible, which many quick explanation of how it fits together.

The reason people don't see this is understandable, when you realize John misrepresents Yeshua, and Paul finalizes it by making people follow evil

Lets start at the point of entrapment:

So the parable of the wicked husbandmen (Matthew 21:33-46, Mark 12:1- explains Isaiah 5 in an expanded context.... That those who think they get inheritance from Yeshua's death, are guilty of manslaughter.

At the end of the parable, Yeshua quotes Isaiah 28 about the chief corner reject.

Isaiah 28 is a bed of adultery, that goes from 28:9-19 (rumor to rumor), middle of it, and explains that the covenant with death is disannulled by (and John).

The reason they confused the matter, is they've taken Isaiah 53 and ran the start it defines it as a rumor.

They've also not realized that Isaiah 8, which lays the snare and explain quick to take the spoils"; links with Zechariah 5, explaining the city built 2) is to catch out those that would swear falsely, and those caught red hand blood of the saints.

The real outcome for Yeshua's death was to fulfill Zechariah 11; which says paid for the price of his head, and put in the potters field in the house of grace is cut off, thus ending the Abrahamic covenant and divorcing Israel

Now there are tons of interlinking metaphors and descriptors, there is reason yet just wanted to write it out, since it so complex and see how short one
