The lesson of oneness or Towheed lies in the very first surah of the Holy praises belong to Allah the Alone,it means we confess that no one else i worship-worthy. Surah Al Fatiha starts with the praise of Allah and the basic belief o Allah is our Lord and Master.

The second verse of surah Fatihah speaks of the Qualities of Allah Almig adjectives, Rahman and Raheem, which are the hyperbolic terms in Arabi perfection and superabundance of Divine mercy. Allah Almighty is the kin kinds of creations, He is the Sustainer and Nurturer of the whole univers

The third verse of the surah Fatihah pays homage to Allah as the Master phrase Master of the day of Requital implies the total mastery on the Day makes a general reference to cover everything, it is also said that on the mastery over everything that exists will belong to Allah Alone.

This world is the field of action and we will recompense for the actions i judgment, our account of actions will be fronted to Allah .He alone is the He will punish the wrongdoers and will give reward to the virtuous people this is stated in the third verse.

Surat Al Fatihah Arab, fourth verse teaches man not to worship anyone e anyone else as being really capable of satisfying his needs, and not to b needs. This is the Towheed[oneness],the basic principle of the Islamic c only Allah.
