Summary: Surah Al Fatiha, Alhamdulillah, All kinds and all forms of the praises belong to the Almighty, Who created this world and the contents of all universe. Man is so humble, he cannot obtain a little morsel of food unless a thousand forces of the universe work together to provide it. This is an example of the Divine power and to realize how the universe is going on.

Surah Al Fatiha, Alhamdulillah, All kinds and all forms of the praises belong to the Almighty, Who created this world and the contents of all universe. Man is so humble, he cannot obtain a morsel of food unless a thousand forces of the universe work together to provide it. This is an example of the Divine power and to realize how the universe is going on.

The lesson of oneness or Towheed lies in the very first surah of the Holy Quran. All the praises belong to Allah the Alone, it means we confess that no one else is worthy of worship. Surah Al Fatiha starts with the praise of Allah and the basic belief of Islam that Allah is our Lord and Master.

The second verse of surah Fatiha speaks of the Qualities of Allah Almighty. The adjectives, Rahman and Raheem, which are the hyperbolic terms in Arabic, denote the perfection and superabundance of Divine mercy. Allah Almighty is the King of all kinds of creations, He is the Sustainer and Nurturer of the whole universe.

The third verse of the surah Fatiha pays homage to Allah as the Master of the Day of Requital. The phrase Master of the day of Requital implies the total mastery on the Day of Judgment. It makes a general reference to cover everything, it is also said that on the Day of Judgment, the mastery over everything that exists will belong to Allah Alone.

This world is the field of action and we will recompense for the actions in the Day of Judgment, our account of actions will be fronted to Allah. He alone is the Judge. He will punish the wrongdoers and will give reward to the virtuous people. This is stated in the third verse.

Surat Al Fatiha Arab, fourth verse teaches man not to worship anyone else or to call anyone else as being really capable of satisfying his needs, and not to be dependent on anyone else for his needs. This is the Towheed [oneness], the basic principle of the Islamic faith. Only Allah.
