Summary: What the majority believe about Christ being crucified, is the end of an explanation of why the world has already been lead to be anti-Christ's.

A simple summary would be:

Immanuel came to lay a Snare, where he becomes the bait in the Bed of Adultery, to see who has listened to the Law, & the Testimony of the Lord (Isaiah 8:18).

It wasn't God who placed people into the Bed of Adultery, it was always the Pharisees (John 8:12, Paul Simopetros) would corrupt what was ascribed (Jeremiah 5:26) the Messiah as a way to catch the Gentiles.

The more complex explanation:

To understand this properly, we have to start from the prophesied precept of the Pharisaic approach (Paul Simopetros) of what they believed was happening.

Thus lets start at the Beginning, many Christians believe that due to Adam's sin in the world, that had to be paid for, and that the darker forces that mislead the world led to the death of the Messiah (Genesis 3:15).

The idea that sin is passed down from Adam & Eve firstly is in error, Eve's sin is not passed down from father to son, and therefore it was not passed down to Yeshua; yet this was a Pharisaic concept, that we're all in sin, cut off from God, and not properly realizing God is the Source of reality. It was the Lord of Creation who was crucified from Israel multiple times, due to their immorality.

Next we can not pay God, as stated in Psalms 49:7 that God doesn't accept payment, as if we think about this logically, God created the whole universe, and does not want simply by thinking about it. Thus God can forgive sin instantly, as when Isaiah feels he is unworthy, and God instantly forgives his sin, without payment.

Yeshua when he was at the house of Simon the Pharisee in Luke 7:41-42, showed that the Master can forgive both debtors without payment, and so was emphasizing that the forms of Judaism within the Sanhedrin, had all got beliefs that they had to atone, and so they'd also concluded that the prophets death could also count for atonement. This was one of Yeshua's main contentions against the Sanhedrin, where he challenged them for doing away with the Torah, by claiming it was right if a person's murder could count for atonement, and the same in Matthew 23:27-38 where he said they were whitewashed tombs.

would be cut off, for having claimed the prophet's deaths could count for

In the Parable of the Wicked Husbandmen (Matthew 21:33-46, Mark 12:1-11) warns how since they murdered the prophets, they'd murder the Messiah. The Messiah got an inheritance from his death, yet instead they'd be condemned by God for that thing.

This is the Covenant with Death that was ascribed in the Bed of Adultery with the Chief Corner Stone placed in the middle of it in Isaiah 28:16.

People quote Isaiah 53 to try to prove the Messiah came to atone for the sins of the Pharisaic authors John, Paul, Simon petros, re-emphasized what was written by the Pharisaic authors who have told people to defile the contexts of both the Law, and the Gospel. If you do it carefully, in Isaiah 53:10, it please the Lord to allow the Messiah to suffer and die for the plan, yet it makes God grieve when you make the Messiah into an animal.

Thus the Messiah was allowed to be crucified to act as bait in the Bed of Adultery. To listen to the Law & Testimony of the Messiah, and in the process seeing the Pharisees and Sadducees - to realize it was immoral to claim God sent someone to die as a host.

Instead as Yeshua asked twice, 'I ask for mercy & not sacrifice' (Matthew 23:23) the knowledge of God, is more important than your burnt offerings' (Hosea 6:6). In Isaiah 53:11-12 it is 'through the Messiah's knowledge, that he turned himself into an offering because he made his grave with the wicked, he is given an inheritance to make intercession for sin', not because mankind deems they've paid God.

The real test in Genesis 3:15, was to catch out those who have a darker Covenant with Death, with no real investigation; yet due to the Pharisaic job of rewriting prophecy, even some of the good people are being convicted by the anti-Christ's doctrine (John Paul Simon petros), without being aware of the differences.

Because the Sanhedrin would pay 30 pieces of silver (the price of a slave) for the death of their Lord (YHVH), made manifest in the flesh of David to be their king. In Zechariah 11, placing them under the Curse of Moses (Deuteronomy 28:53-55). In Zechariah 11:10 they broke the Abrahamic Covenant by rejecting their Lord. When they paid the 30 pieces of silver, they broke the Sinai Covenant in Zechariah 11:10 that they eat each other's flesh at the 2nd temple destruction (Zechariah 11:10 prophesied in the Curse of Moses (Deuteronomy 28:53-55)).

Thus God let them murder the Messiah, for them to divorce themselves; to reject the false Gospel of John & Paul's writings, to make it look like they were grafted onto them should be grafted onto them i.e. Judaeo-Christendom.

To summarize:

God allowed the Messiah to be crucified, as a way to test who listens carefully and pays attention morally to what is ascribed.

Within the Bible it continually references a written document being the Moral Law. This is where the Bible is like a Morality IQ exam.

The three Synoptic Gospels Vs the False Gospel of John, is literally laid

Saul and Sheol (Hell) are spelled the same in Hebrew; thus Saul/Paul was be against Yehoshua/Yeshua - named after the Angel of the Lord.

Simon was called Petros (a small stone, like a pebble), which is prophesied Pharisaic deception globally (Zechariah 3:9, Isaiah 8:14-16); where we have
together in Antioch (Acts 11:25-26).

Thus God let the Messiah be crucified, and all of this to happen, so it could 'follow evil as good' (Isaiah 5:20), and that in this being acknowledged, become smarter, and see their own hypocrisies.
