Summary: The word Mammon that Yeshua used, has been wrongly translat

Another mistranslation by many is that of mammon, mammon should mean the perspective of everything Christ said this makes logical sense. At pr mean riches, which doesn't make logical sense within an overall context.
Quote:

Mat 6:24 No one can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one a will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and ma

Here it could mean riches, as he was talking about not needing; yet wher Luke, here is where it shows you exactly what it means. Plus within this 2nd commandment, that there shall be no image of God, so you can't mak no image.
Quote:

Luke 16:9 And I say to you, Make friends by the mammon of unrighteousn when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

This is clear, if you exchange the word for either riches or idolaters, you sense, that he meant idolatry or idolaters. If he was meaning riches, it w Yeshua wasn't saying make friends of rich people, when he told us to giv
Quote:

Luke 16:13 No servant can serve two masters. For either he will hate the else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God

So what Christ is saying is to serve God and not the ways of idolatry, an are with, if your heart is set on God make friends of mammon, so you can good. Then if you have been faithful in this you can be trusted to enter h
Quote:

Luke 16:11 Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous ma true riches to you?

They added riches as this is what mammon is presumed to be, as stated
Quote:

Of Chaldee origin (confidence, that is, figuratively wealth, personified);

Quote:

1) Mammon
2) Treasure
3) Riches (where it is personified and opposed to God)

Most of the dictionaries in fact do the same, a clear example of the blind

The best definition of Mammon I've seen is 'that in which you trust', in o have faith', thus misplaced faith in objects, shows that it can mean idola
