Summary: A guide to understanding the Dragon in Revelations, from a Bi Revelations is very hard to understand as it is very figurative and much priest to mean something different to what is intended. Yet in actual fact every term used; so what does the dragon mean:

Quote:

Eze 29:3-9 Speak and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I, even I, king of Egypt (man), the great dragon who lies in the midst of his rivers, mine, and I have made it. (4) But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I wi to stick to your scales, and I will bring you up out of the midst of your ri rivers shall stick to your scales. (5) And I will leave you to the wildern rivers. You shall fall on the open fields; you shall not be removed nor ga food to the beasts of the field and to the birds of the heavens. (6) And shall know that I am Jehovah, because they have been a staff of reed to When they took you by your hand, you broke and tore off all their should you, you shattered and made all their loins stand. (8) So the Lord Jeho bring a sword on you, and cut off man and beast from you. (9) And the a desert and waste; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, because he h and I have made it.

I have added Egypt is man; as explain in another part of the Bible.
So this explains that the dragon is something that portrays it self as God
Now according to the book of John (which is made up), Christ made the u said by Christ and he wouldn't dare say so.

Joh 1:2-3 He was in the beginning with God. (3) All things came into be Him not even one thing came into being that has come into being.

Again this was made up, to put the Jewish people off ever following Chri of the waters spewed out by the dragon and has become a main teaching
Quote:

Rev 12:15 And the dragon cast out of his mouth water like a flood after he might cause her to be carried away by the river.

This water's also include what Paul said of making Christ into God.
Quote:

Tit 2:13 looking for the blessed hope, and the appearance of the glory of Yeshua Christ,

Again these making the wisdom of Christ, seem as if he was the dragon a beast (Christianity). When in actual fact, the beast (Christianity) does n pointed to God and the commandments.
Quote:

Rev 13:4 and they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast.
beast, saying, who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with it?

This then makes sense as the authority of Christ was stolen by Christian from what has been written by the Pharisees (John and Paul) portraying Yet in fact if you read the other gospels, he gave all honor and glory to faith in God alone! Not to teach the commandments of men and worship C
