In faith we're standing,
Tests are demanding;
Trails are long,
We lose the song.
Yet keep going on.
Time will tell,
Who is for Hell;
Where bad egos do dwell.
Save who we can;
Like a modest gentleman;
This is the plan,
Our father said we can.
Not in condemnation,
Be a better generation,
Spend time in contemplation.
Before we teach,
Careful not to preach;
Don't make it out of reach.
Lean not on our own insight,
Rather study what is right;
Keep our mind a bright,
That we may spread some light.
