Summary: Noticing from conversations, how to have better relations

Those quick to debate,
Are often not capable to relate.
A word in haste,
Is often chased.
Spend time to reflect,
Not to interject.
Listen to what is discussed,
Not ponder how we're fussed.
When not spending time to check what we've heard,
Rather quickly challenging that's absurd,
Do we educate or merely replicate,
The same stupidity we're trying to circumnavigate?
Inertia can cause us to think we're flowing;
When really we're showing,
Just how much we're not knowing...
As notice how the wise pause,
As maybe they've realized the flaws;
Can even elaborate on the clause,
Yet know not to slam the doors.
