Once you joined, please fill in your profile, so people can see who you are.

We have a full question answers system, which already has a lot of the questions about how to use the site; these are not viewable unless you are registered.

Site \(Xoops\) Guide

Why do you need to register twice, well we can use an automated service for anything on one of the sites, it will mean a lot of messing to the code to make the sites change the same.

Since a lot of people only need to look through the information, at present we leave it separate.

Also as I just found out, if you upload an avatar to one of the sites and it causes problems for us.

So for the sake of convenience, until one day the two sites become one and we have the funds and the means to do so.

If you wish to access all features May Text Submission on www.wizanda.com as well, please also register there.

Thank you, sorry for any inconvenience
