Hi , I was quite spiritual till one year back, with total and blind faith in God that got me deceived, in the name of God and i cracked up when i realised i was deceived, manipulated, by someone with magical powers. Ever since that i have become some kind of a lunatic monster. I dont pray anymore, I dont

Hi... I can relate. You still have faith, it is just misplaced and confused. what it is that deceived you. There still is "A God"... let him be the creator of science? Who is the creator in scientific terms? The universe created itself, the creator is still omnipresent. The creator is still the creator. You are the creator you can create as well. Everything the creator can do, it is a part of you. I have been through what you are going through. Seek for truth now. We have all been deceived, not alone. Yet, remember... it is us that deceived ourselves. Don't misplace blame, we should be accounted for in your own actions. Now is the age of personal, individual, depth responsibility. It's not a time for blame. If you are lost and you cannot find your own problem.

Peace and love,
David.
