If people believed in life and death as much as you believe in the illusio so much struggle here. People die on both sides because their religions an illusion, by telling them that death is the true life. There are no illus illusion itself. Everything you touch, feel, see and experience in this exi breaths you breathe. When you believe in illusions, you create your own.

simply trying to make a well informed and well respected question. Death

Also, I'm not saying there is no afterlife... read what I say carefully... I' which the religions bring forth life and death... as if it IS just an illusion wrong. Almost as if it doesn't even matter to be here, because there is e creator, or messengers, to send a new message that is up to date with ou we may... for once.. possibly find peace in living. Finding euphoria in DE of carelessness in LIFE.

"Well... after I die... it will all be healed... just make it through this cra c'mon David".... is that how I should be programmed to think?
