One of my favorite philosophies when i get down is... "When you have no have everything to live for."

Human potential is currently, and I believe purposely has been, stunted. awakening to be had. Those that are lost are not lost becuase they are c they are lost because they have been misguided. We can only view one c creator to intiate creation. Why so many different Bibles and words of Go Gods now... Dude had said this earlier, and was mad about it.. but the m about it the past few months, the more it is making sense. We are becom have the potential to control everything in our lives... we are breaking th set on us for so long now... but we have worked hard for it... and died fo are saved before another catastrophe should happen, and it will. This is is common sense... this is the reality of our world. Not until emotions on power and money will we be at peace... until then we will continue to suf created.
