Suzy, Angie & Sam's articles are very in-depth and insightful. I've written months back as part of the starting of my blog, just a sharing with you.

Are you an Indigo or Crystal child?

Have you felt different from most people around you, stepping to the beat of a different drum? Perhaps you are highly sensitive, even telepathic. If so, you are one of the chosen ones to raise the Earth's vibration in this critical era. The Indigo/Crystal phenomenon is a part of human evolution. The Indigos and Crystals are the catalyst to awaken humanity. You are called to trust your wise inner guidance, to truly bestow your gifts upon humanity.

Indigo and Crystal are terms describing the aura colours and energy patterns that have made their appearance known recently. The Indigos of this age are mostly children. They have been incarnating on Earth for the last 100 years. The pioneer Indigo was born around 1950, a significant number were born and they are the Indigo adults now. The Crystals began their appearance around year 2000, but there were some who arrived earlier.

The Crystals are delightful, compassionate and wise beyond their years. They have the piercing of their large, penetrating eyes that lay your soul bare. Indeed, they have the ability to see that part of you. If they see someone in distress, they would be quick to help and even intuitive Reiki. They have a gentle temperament and a soothing presence. They are opalescent with multi-colour pastel hues, and they have the ability to assume many colours like a chameleon. Thus, their personality is very changeable, puzzling those who do not know them. The reason they do this is due to their needing points of reference to human experiences that are unfamiliar with earthly lives. Crystals and Indigos are very similar except for their energy levels.

The Indigos have a warrior temperament because they are here to demolish the old and create new paths for the "new energy". They have an impatience with dishonesty and manipulation does nothing to them. So, they are outspoken with the truth. The introverted Indigos will do so in written words. Their work clears the path for the new energy to anchor in the world. Indigos have a high energy level and often labeled as "old energy" actually through this hyper-energy that they express movement and creation. We can see this "old energy" being busted in various parts of the world. The old values and issues of duality are crumbling from their own weight.

As the world is securely anchoring "new energy" or Christ Consciousness, the old is being largely done. Thus, many of them are shifting to the Crystal state, joining the new energy.

Love & Light,
Snow
