As the world's population swiftly approaches a critical mass of 6.5 Billio becoming outdated like an old baseball mit. They have been worn out, an lost. The new journey begins... the transformation. As the governments c and complete power and order, they will soon crumble, it is now up to us human being, to transform this world. In another 100 years, almost every replaced with the new offspring of this generation. At this critical point i this change.

World affairs are currently unstable. Good alliances have gone sour. It is within. The human species now has the potential to become. We have bee caterpillar, eating up whatever knowledge that has come our way. We hav time to bloom into that galactic butterfly for all of our star brothers and have to show our responsibility. The magnitude of this current process is future of humankind rides on this decision... which is ours to be made. B lead by example. This place CAN change.

This grand technological age that we are entering cannot allow for irresp love by example, nothing should be forced.

It is "critical mass" because it is the point of no return. Our technologica in order to get them out to benefit the public we must show our responsib deny the reality of this universe. We cannot continue to strap suicide ves each other up.(critical mass is the stage just before 2012 and 7 billion, t transformation/transfiguration period in the human species that WILL tak 2012... 2012 and 7 billion coincide with one another, it's not just fairy ta prefect, nor any different from anything that you could ever become or be potential within us. By 2013 the Earth and it's inhabitants will be engulfe consciousness and awareness. Ask away, I'll be more than glad to discus conversations immensely. Although I will admit, I am limited and I do not you may desire. I am only human, just as you are. I've just experienced a never have seen or experienced before, yet. Time will answer all of your your trust, your love, and your compassion in moving forward and bringin David.

P.s. It is not weird to understand. There is no longer any room for discri
