Yerp. this is happening all over the world now. At least anyplace the white area. Big business seems to be the glue bringing the world together in unity. It's taking a second seat to big business. However there is a satanic side to this. We've talked about our true. It's getting tougher to find human help. instead of a triplicate, ect! It's insane, the only way sin can die tho, is to go insane! and where do you want your platform (that you operate from) to be at as t while going insane!
