Me I ok with powerful women and respect that, yet I do feel many choose to stand against what women are, with some of the feminists, who feel women are oppressed. The reason i said it like that is my cousin for years, was a feminist, she now sees the effect it has on families of the children she now teaches.

Her tune has changed so much, that she feel now that everyone has a role to play. all the supression for so many years, yes women do wish to break free. Yet on the same she thinks that women should also remember what they are not.....to not lose the balance of socity, as we are doing....

This is from a conversaion we had, so some points may be mine, yet we c
