We don't it is a trick

Me personally I have been so hurt by people down here I resent almost, p thing they call love over me.

You see down here I wouldn't really call it love, yet a reflection of what

If we take a look at the bigger picture and look at nature, yes we can see re-procreating and having babies; spending time in close proximity

On the other hand what else do we see squabbles and a time for separati young have been raised?

So since this comes close to a point many might say is standing against of it, in a way I suppose yes it does.

Yet in another it doesn't..

Let me explain, you see if we take lions or any other mammals, yes they they don't have bloody paper work binding them in some Satanistic occult

They can leave and find another mate the men are free, there is no you a what would most males do in any other species if any female tried to cla

I blame Paul and John for this with that rubbish about we are not of the we are we made of soil we reproduce, what God made a mistake and mad

No, Paul and John didn't have a clue what they were talking about..

As if we take the, "we will bond like angels", that means free and when I telling one they above another is wrong a not the way of heaven.

All are equal all are loved and equally..how is that achieved as you are t the expression, yet after feeling what the real love in heaven is nothing love.

There is no question of you are mine or I want you it is accepted that wa asking for a contract, therefore there is no beginning there is no end.

There is no ring of ownership holding angels back from loving each other

Yet the main part in this working is no one loves each other directly, they made the person to be.

In actual fact many angels would find it an insult to tell them they are special and they know this, which is the reason they are an angel in a first place

As no one and I mean no one can enter heaven with out some of these barriers are why they are here in this world for you to understand and come to terms

I hear many say they can't wait to get too heaven to get back to their loved ones

I don't want get back to heaven; to see my friends and close one up there with God so much.

Just to sit near God is my love and my wife for ever more, amen

I wish I could relate this to you in what it all means with references, I can't get parts to heaven that take a while of understanding some of the 'matrix' concepts

Its isn't half tricky...

So when I say I love someone just to get this straight it isn't so much for you to think you are or have achieved as many times I will see that as Ego.

It is for who God has allowed and risen you up to be, then the final part is that as in every option is an effect and you can be stronger then the cause to overcome

Stand strong to your roots and away from the wrong options is what this is about

You see I started with love yet really, it is again back to the root question of love

With half of us not seeing further then the procreation it is a bit hard to understand the cause of the effect, you have been put here to learn, life isn't about the end result out come your soul can develop if you allow it.

Part of this is the circle that is explained very well in Celestine prophecies they have feminine and masculine side in them to begin... As they slowly learn the partners side to fill the space of their own opposite energies.

Now when you finish a relationship the way it stand now of this marriage is so bizarre to me, the hurt ache the suffering the pain I see people go through

How to solve this do what was said "if two lay down together the two become one"

Scary if that is reality well guess what if you couldn't feel it and are not experiencing the emotions.

I can remember every person I have slept with spirit and soul who they are

It hurt when you also see the future when this happens at least I have le can avoid the heart ache many suffer.

You see to many of us are guide by our flesh and they look nice..

This whole process is wrong why look, why even try, if you life is destined will inevitably come back to the same obstacle in your life regardless wh

Then are you not best just to sit back as such and when the time is right

You see another part to this is something that bonds quickly normal sepa

So

Oh yeh the circle after you split in a relationship it take along time to re self and think it can be done like that, as I can't and getting together wi the lost one is bad for you.

As what you do is take your previous characteristics into the next and sp

It take time to be you, know you understand you in every situation being your self to be solid and then ready to move on.
