Brief Status of this document:

I am happy to inform you all that I have been able to condense and stream line this document for peoples consumption. I would be blessed and very content if this document please share it with all of your friends and families and ask them how far shared this message amongst some top theologians, Mystics, Buddhists, and some Evangelical Christians and unbelievably ALL of them stated that this was entirely possible, stood in enlightenment of the knowledge they had and were 100% that this could happen.

Perhaps the most powerful of feedback came when I ventured WAY out on something DEEP inside me told me to go ahead and share the message with a woman known for 3 years who is 100% Iranian and has lived in Iran all of her life. She began sharing it with her (Hamide) but I found HUGE relief when she stated she was and tired of our president here, and we are waiting for the AMERICANS to be supported that statement with an incredibly true and eral statement, that in the light of things even so with all the negative press Iraq has been getting, we want to be free like Iraq, our neighbors, regardless of the price, we want to be free. I was shocked.

So as you can see, in this again I tried to formulate a sense of wether or not truth or not based upon a diverse peoples review of the message and the challenge you to come up with healthy debate as to why such an approach last point to share. That is, that when you read this message please keep in mind the possible definition of the Holy Grail is that the Grail is a, "Latent Miracle within all of us. Thank you all, and God Speed.

Global Democracy meets Divine Unity:

Imagine Baghdad, 90 degrees, streets paved in gold, sidewalk areas full of offerings from mother nature, cool misting scented water spraying about, streets, people talking, holding hands, kissing, bands playing on the sidewalk, magic..everyone barefootin... Yeah baby

But honestly, might we ever get close to nirvana, paradise or heaven on earth?

Can we not recognize the need for the entire mass of souls to come together for the ultimate plan, the last frontier? If indeed a latent miracle power would be safe to say that all souls come from the same source. That being the source should reside not only within each person, but be throughout the time. But how might we hand-hold this along?

Imagine for a moment if we are to combine such a theory as universal love, with worldwide democracy. Democracy, where America's founding fathers said, "All races and all religions, can live peacefully under the same umbrella." For example, prior to the fall of Hitler Europe was destined to become a very tolerant nation, where tolerance existed for race nor religion. But yet only 25 years after WWII, a democratic nation, combining many races, and many religions, while all under the same umbrella. Then the East fell, with the Berlin Wall and communism collapsed, and grows there. And with West and East Europe democratized the next focus was on the Middle East. With only Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria and Iran left to democratize the road will not be long. N. Korea potentially will be next, where a free and peaceful force shall introduce democracy based upon equality, freedom and peace. And lastly, gaining the final frontier, perhaps we will negotiate to finally bring down the last wall.

With worldwide democracy spread throughout, in all nations of the planet, there will be less war, much smaller defense budgets, a humanity that finally realizes its true beginning; People will be more consciously able to address things such as environmental rehabilitation without negative cycles, cures for illnesses without red tape, environment, equality and global unification. One might say, this won't work. But it isn't. Look at America having 50 separate states all states having their own laws based upon the people's vote and living in peace and freedom without fear of attacking. Now expand that concept, where as all the world's nations become like America, are those who might say, that is an EVIL PLOT! It is the very essence of the American dream. And I would address those in the dark and suggest that they open their eyes to the signs, messages, rich histories and symbology and seek why it is not an accident. An example of symbology having been right under our noses all along - the United States Bill of Rights. More importantly, the three phrases in Latin that exist upon the bill. The

"E PLURIBUS UNUM", meaning "one nation from many people."

"ANNUIT COEPTIS", means "God has favored our undertaking."

"NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM", is interpreted to mean "a new order for the world."

It translates into a "new order for the world", not a NEW WORLD ORDER.

So seek, from within and throughout. Be aware, highly aware in the present, learn from the past and visionary for the future. If you do this, you will find peace. We do have the ability to come together, to embrace each other without borders. With respect and love, we shall make for a total transformation of ourselves and the planet.

Much Peace, Love & Light,
