Specifying the aims of Wizanda as a charity fully.

Each will be addressed in a full description, in ways that the charity may

- 1). To unite the religions through global understanding of the points acquired in charity.
- 2). To help in global re-climatization through free projects available to all, with information to distribute; as to fix the world for free.
- 3). To seek out other charities that wish to work on a unified, global scale, and to have.
- 4). To organize and help fund events in major cities centres, where as to go down the street, under a non religious banner, yet all as one.
- 5). To assist in networking of the communities ideas, to develop and promote people in life; with the funds of said idea always, going into the charity.
- 6). To assist in the production of music and art globally to produce a non commercial artist wishing to distribute their work without cost.
- 7). To develop a non hierarchical structure within the charity, and to develop democratic communism, in which people vote for what they think is the best for the charities funding, being spent in the community, for the community.
- 8). To help and organize the new churches, as to be community centres of God, where God is shown above all and there are to be people there to help 24/7 and to help.
- 9). To insure a system of security within the charities own infrastructure, to prevent embezzlement and all fraudulent activities by any members, in the continuing, by defining all points before they are needed.
- 10). To allow ordinary people without being ordained, to be classed as a part of the establishments, when investing time in the charity.
- 11). To organize and hand help in events in which people in care due to illness, to have opportunities and security, to be a part of said ideas, as to help develop and encourage them through love, to be part of the community again.
- 12). Through the charities resources, to make a permanent place with all, to develop between the world a new book, which caters for our children, and to be a guide to life for all.
