~Wow and I thought I had lots of parables and sayings, you have even more...

Do you understand what I was getting at, if we try and say (I am) loving, we will not be...

If we say God is unconditional love and we are amateurs training....

Then we can receive the love of God, which does work and helps teach the energy needed to continue sometimes when we don't have enough...

So was questioning the point of a chain as if it is carried it is no use...I big (I love my self) = EGO

Why (I love my self), well they so busy carrying this chain that they feel to love them self to pick them self back up...

Lao Tzu and many others in fact said hate self, be empty it is the space vessel...not the vessel being full...

So on the one hand we get millions whom say they love...they love their another situation it doesn't shine....

Like you do unto me do unto my brethren...boy have we seen that in this happen to each one...

Who do we blame me!
They bullied me...who fault me!

Why should have been quicker faster more cool? Now am...so fixed what yet if I had let all this fake love, as people offered me to fill any of that dead by now...

So who or where to get the strength? God...do we see this no!

So how can we call it chains, when we can't see them? how can we call it big or how small this spreads?...yet when called upon it is always there.

Wish people understood Lao Tzu, very clever little book...

Sweet like honey to read, yet when it hits your stomach of how we don't bitter in the stomach...(small book in Revelations chapter 10, is the Tao
