Rabbinic Judaism's outlook on reality has affected global theology to create a concept of Yetzer Hara which implies man from birth has an evil inclination and desires of this world.

This is so backwards, as we're down near Hell, where this world allows us to fulfil them; after we have fulfilled our desires down here, we can then turn to existence to realize materialism is a trap.

Thus Rabbinic thinking created Christianity, Islamic, Baha'i concepts after here is suffering when we get what we want; it is only suffering when we realize the Matrix (Maya), as none of it is real, the Source of reality is.
