The Messiah according to the Bible comes to bring destruction, as we shall see in these mistranslated verses

The idea the Messiah comes as a superhero to rescue everyone, is a late addition who don't accept the original prophecies.

According to the Bible the Messiah's first coming is in Isaiah 8:11-22, which will mark mankind by the testimony.

Then in Isaiah 28 is the Parable of the Fig, where the Snare is the closure of the temple then Judgement Day with a Fire that shall burn the Ravenous beings from the earth.

In the Quran the Messiah is prophesied in chapter 43, which is all about signs, yet being ignored... So in Quran 43:46-56 is Moses vs Pharaoh, in 57-60 is Yeshua, and 60-77 is the second coming before destruction.

The later Hadiths made up the idea of the Imam Mahdi coming, and the Messiah under Islam; rather than it being Muhammad who is the Imam Mahdi, as he is the Testament corruptions of John, Paul, and Simon the stumbling stone (peter).

The Baha'i ideas are just plainly following the Anti-John, Paul, and Simon the stumbling stone (peter) teachings of Christ.

In Revelation and the Gospels, Christ returns at the Final Hour secretly to inspect the Harvest (Revelation 16:15-16, Revelation 3:3, Matthew 25:1-13) before the burning.

In other words it is not long left before this whole world is destroyed in fire and only the enlightened saints remain.

The Messiah according to Revelation 3:18-21 will give out free Dharmic knowledge before the Apocalypse; then after in the Messianic Age those who survive, will learn from those they listened when they had the chance...

It is up to you to listen before it happens; God bless you.
