Zechariah 5 is Wisdom personified (Sophia), placed, and turned into the Alcohol, in the city of adultery (Habakkuk 2, Revelation 12:1-6, Revelation 17:2). We can understand from the Hymn to Demeter, that in Ancient times Kykeon was encouraged for enlightenment (Entheogens); where as Alcohol was bound to unconsciousness, and demon possession (Spirits).

The Song of Solomon can also be read, as the Woman being Wisdom, and the Divine Understandings.

Now though through the lens of a Babylonian drunk eye glass 🧐, the mysteries of the prophets any more; 'where we're given the book, and we're layering (Isaiah 29:9-14).

Women were the protectors of knowledge, and Wisdom, the matriarchs/elders of patriarchal religion, Rome dethroned women, and got us all drunk. 🧐
